

Nombre _____

Metas de la Unidad 2: ¿Qué es una familia? What is a family?

As you progress through unit 2, use this chart to track your developing skills. Color in the bars in the graph to represent your skill level at this time. Update it as you work through the unit.

I can understand this when I see/hear it.

I can do this with help.

I can do this confidently & independently.

I can identify members of my family from a photo and tell their names.

I can describe my pet(s) with a few details.

I can tell how old people are in my family, using complete sentences.

I can describe my hair style (color, length, and style).

I can describe my physical appearance with some details (such as eye color, freckles, braces, etc)

I can compare my family with families in other communities.

I can describe my family members' personalities with several words.

I can describe my family members' physical appearance with several words.

I can tell a few activities that my family members like & don't like to do.

I can ask several questions about other people's family members.

